Exhibit 99.1

Byline Bancorp, Inc. Announces the Death of its Director Jaime Ruiz Sacristán

Chicago, IL, April 15, 2020 – Byline Bancorp, Inc. (NYSE: BY) today announced the passing of Jaime Ruiz Sacristán, director, chairman of the Governance and Nominating Committee, and member of the Compensation Committee and Risk Committee of the Company. Mr. Ruiz Sacristán passed away on April 12, 2020 in Mexico City as a result of complications from the coronavirus. He served as a director of the Company and its subsidiary Byline Bank since June of 2013.

R. Herencia, Chairman of the Board, said, “We are deeply saddened by the passing of our director and friend. This is a major loss for us as Jaime was an important member of our board, a key figure in what we have accomplished at Byline, including our formation, and, above all, a great human being and professional.”

“Councilor by excellence, Jaime Ruiz Sacristán fought until the end. We will miss the confidence provided by his human values,” said Antonio del Valle Perochena, director at Byline Bancorp, Inc. and Byline Bank.

“a great human being who deeply cared about the organization and its people,” added Alberto Paracchini, President and CEO.

Jaime Ruiz Sacristán was the Founder and Chairman of the board of directors of Mexico City based and privately owned Banco Ve por Más, a position he held since 2003, and served as Chairman of the board of directors of the Mexican Stock Exchange since January 2015. He was President of the Mexican Bankers Association from 2011 to 2013 and served as its vice president from 2007 to 2009. He served on the boards of numerous companies in the financial, industrial and commercial industries. Mr. Ruiz Sacristán held a bachelor’s degree in business administration from Universidad Anáhuac and an M.B.A. from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.
